

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Criminal No. 08-cr-39-05-PB

Gillian Barrett

O R D E R

Defendant appeared for a bail revocation hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3148.

In April and May of 2008, Ms. Barrett violated her bail with no action requested. On January 22, 2009, she was arrested for possession of oxycodone and had alcohol on her breath. The arrest was at a time after her curfew. Given the number of failed opportunities to comply with conditions I find that the defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions. The conditions of release are revoked.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant be detained pending trial.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

SO ORDERED.
